

Marble Disclaimer

The homeowner will be responsible for signing off on each slab individually before ANY fabrication will begin on your project. Marble, although beautiful, is a porous material. Pitting, white iron spots and scratches and etching will appear on every slab. All precaution will be taken to install a clean piece of marble, however, scratching of material can happen during transportation and installation.

No financial concessions will be made due to pitting, scratches, iron spots and etching of a Marble product. The homeowner accepts full responsibility of the characteristics of the product.
